

Tania makes pancakes

By Kanika G

Tania Makes Pancakes

Kanika G

Copyright 2014 by Kanika G

Website:

www.kanikag.com

Tania Makes Pancakes

It was late afternoon. The time was 4:00 pm. Tania was getting hungry. It had been three whole hours since she finished eating lunch. Tania needed to eat frequently. She was a growing girl with a tiny tummy. She felt like eating pancakes. So she went to find mama.

Mama was reading a story on her e-reader. Tania went and called out "Mama, mama. Mama, listen to me mama." But mama was absorbed in the story, so she did not hear Tania. Tania decided to be more assertive. She said "Anisha Patel!", for that was mama's name, "Anisha Patel!"

Mama suddenly heard Tania and said, "What happened little Tania?" Tania said "Mama, I am hungry. I want pancakes. Make pancakes mama. Let's make pancakes now." "Okay Tania.", said mama and they both went to the kitchen together.

Tania went to the cupboard and got a blue plastic mixing bowl. Mama fetched the electric hand mixer.

Mama put a cup of flour and a tea-spoon of baking powder in the bowl and Tania mixed it with a spoon. Then mama added an egg, a cup of milk and some vanilla essence. Tania helped mama whisk the mixture with the hand mixer to make a smooth white batter.

Tania then fetched the frying pan and mama got the olive oil spray and soon the pancakes were cooking on the stove top.

Mama used up the batter to make 4 large fluffy pancakes and put them on a plate. Tania added the butter and syrup.

Tania and mama each got a fork and enjoyed a delicious snack of pancakes.

The picture of the pancakes in the cover as well as in the book is a picture by jeffreyw posted at

<https://www.flickr.com/photos/jeffreyw/5502814263/>

under the following license

<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0/>